

Charlie Melton

Retired U.S. Navy Seal

& Head of Training - Product Development – Production, G2 Precision

Among the top firearms professionals chosen to grace the cover of Ballistic Magazine – Charlie Melton is most unique as he broke the long range shooting world record with a 2.84 mile shot using an Armalite AR-30 chambered in ".408 Tejas"! This elite warrior shares his expertise through firearms instruction in addition to designing the most accurate rifles in the world.

At the age of 19, Charlie joined the U.S. Navy and embarked upon a remarkable military career. He completed the Basic Underwater Demolition/SEAL course Class 176 and checked into his very first SEAL Team, (SEAL Delivery Vehicle Team-2) where he underwent 3 deployments, and eventually served as a SEAL Delivery Vehicle Instructor.

Charlie became the Leading Chief Petty Officer of Sniper School. He went on two deployments as part of SEAL Team-5, and ultimately received the Bronze Star, Purple Heart, Sailor of the Quarter, Sailor of the Year for all SEAL

Teams, and Runner-Up for PACIFIC-FLEET SOY.

He served as the Operations Leading Chief Petty Officer of the Naval Special Warfare Unit-1 and was in charge of 14 Southeast Asian Countries. Later, he served as SEAL Team-1 Troop Chief and retired as Senior Chief Petty Officer in 2015 after 26 years of service. Since then, he opened CharlieMikePrecision, a Tactical Force Company specializing in Long Range Rifle, Pistol, and Carbine Courses in addition to joining forces with G2 Precision.
